

Statement to the South Pacific Stock Exchange

June 30th 2011

CFL MAKES FREQUENCY CHANGES TO 5 RADIO STATIONS

Communications Fiji Limited (CFL), the parent company of FM96, Legend FM, Navtarang, Sargam and Viti FM will complete the change of it's radio stations frequencies around the country according to the requirements of the National Spectrum Decree later this evening.

Although the original deadline for all radio stations in Fiji to change their frequencies allocated by the Communications Ministry is tomorrow, July 1st 2011, the CFL stations have completed the changes, in phases, from earlier this month and the final change will occur later this evening for the Central Division.

The frequencies are attached.

Stay listening, we will let you know when to make the change later this evening in the Central Division.

Meanwhile, the Communications Ministry has given another 10 days from tomorrow's deadline for the change in radio station frequencies for radio stations to ensure there is no interference and every operator complies with the National Spectrum Decree.
